PROJECTS

Tablet and Capsule defect detector ↗

Jul 2025 - Aug 2025

I developed a Capsule and Tablet Defect Detector Prototype a proof-of-concept automated visual inspection system using computer vision and deep learning to spot defects in pharmaceutical tablets and capsules. This isn't a full-scale industrial deployment, but rather a working prototype I built to demonstrate the core idea: replacing slow, error-prone manual checks with fast, reliable AI-based detection. It's designed to show real potential for Pharma quality control while being achievable with limited resources like a basic camera, laptop/GPU, and open-source tools.
